

Willan house

The home where care matters.

Residential Care Home serving Lincolnshire,
the East Midlands and beyond.

Welcoming you and your loved ones

At Willan House, our biggest priority is to make our residents as comfortable as possible.

It's our duty to provide the highest quality care whilst treating residents with the utmost respect.

Home from home

Change can be unsettling so we make the transition from home to care home as smooth as possible for our residents and their families. It's the little things that count, like allowing familiar items to furnish rooms, creating opportunities for socializing and creating enticing meals using local suppliers and fresh ingredients

To reassure you

We're an established team of carers at Willan House, with a vast number of years' service between us. We provide high levels of care, day and night, that's why we make sure our carers are also looked after; no shift lasts longer than 10 hours so our team are alert and ready to put resident needs above anything else. We're all highly trained and competent in our roles.

At Willan House you're in good hands.

Residential care

Quality care matters at Willan House.

We're a fully registered residential home and have the capacity for 20 residents to live with us at any time.

Two of the bedrooms are large enough to accommodate two people sharing (spouses or friends). And, many of our bedrooms have en-suite facilities which are kept to the highest of standards.

Our housekeeper keeps the house spick and span, far exceeding the standards of infection control set nationally. All bathrooms and bedrooms are cleaned daily.

We're fully trained and highly competent when it comes to covering health conditions such as dementia and our staff are trained in caring for residents until the end of their life.

Short-term stays

Everyone's welcome to join us for a short stay to experience what it's like living in Willan House.

Choosing a care home is a big decision and short stays can be a good way for people to familiarise themselves with care home environment and try out a potential permanent home.

We encourage people staying with us on short-term stays to fully take advantage of the social activities going on within Willan House and to see their time with us as a chance to meet new people and try new things.

We're dedicated to providing tailored support that meets the individual needs of all care home residents, whatever level of care they require and however long they stay with us.

Daytime care

Supporting independence at Willan House.

Staying independent and maintaining sense of self is important to all of us. That's why we provide a safe environment for people who need companionship, support and care during the day, but wish to return to their own home at night.

We cater for small numbers of people requiring care during the day and we talk about individual needs and wishes before anyone starts their sessions with us.

Hairdressing, manicures or chiropody appointments are available on certain days and we can help with any other aspects of personal care if needed. We can also administer medication.

Call us on 01526 398785 or visit www.willanhouse.co.uk for more information or to find out if our daytime care is currently available

Why choose us?

Willan House Residential Care Home is located in Stainfield which is just east of Lincoln and close to the villages of Wragby and Bardney. Our home is set in lovely gardens and has some stunning views; residents can see as far as Lincoln Cathedral and The Lincolnshire Wolds.

But it's not just our impressive views that sets us apart. Our achievements are impressive too.

Kind words

“My Grandmother was a resident of Willan House before she passed. The care home has made me feel more secure about reaching those later years because I now know there are retirement communities that show their residents the respect and care they deserve whilst going above and beyond.”

“My mother-in-law has been a resident of Willan House for over two years and the level of care I would say is outstanding.

Their approach is friendly without being patronising and everything is done to make the residents feel as though they're at home rather than in a home.”

“My Mum has dementia so we wanted to make sure she was somewhere that we didn't need to worry about and to know that she was being well looked after and Willan House is just that! A home from home filled with lovely, caring staff.”
